

RECOSA

*Retired Employees of the City of San Antonio
Serving those who have served others*

Who is RECOSA?

A non-profit, tax-exempt organization providing timely, relevant information to COSA retirees regarding critical issues such as TMRS and health benefits. It is a volunteer organization serving the retirees from the City of San Antonio.

What does RECOSA do?

The RECOSA Board meets regularly with City staff to stay informed of developing issues and new provisions, and to communicate retiree interests and concerns to City policymakers. Working with City staff, RECOSA strives to ensure that TMRS and health benefits are not diminished, and that affordable options are available to retirees.

RECOSA maintains a website at www.recosa.org where members can view retiree benefit issues or concerns and access a calendar of events.

RECOSA works with City staff to host “Brown Bag” events for all RECOSA members where speakers will present information relevant to issues concerning health issues, financial matters, or retirement benefits.
